Note from Mrs. Maki, Principal

Dear Happy Valley Primary Families,

Tis the season to slow down! The holiday season is a wonderful time of year, but it can also be chaotic and stressful with all of the activities, family events, baking, shopping, presents and so much, much more! In this busy, exciting season be sure to take time for yourself and your family. Here are some helpful tips for parenting during the holiday season:

- Use a family calendar to help your kids adjust to the changing schedule. It really helps when kids can visually see upcoming changes to their routine
- Try to keep bedtime and your routine as normal as you can, when you can.

Here at school the halls are decked and classrooms are buzzing with activity also. Teachers and staff are working hard to make this an enjoyable time for students while integrating important learning. Be sure to check out the above dates for ways that students can join in the fun while at school.

Kindly,

Mrs. Maki
